He was born February 12, 1845, and has been a resident of Ogden since 1890. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Grand Army of the Republic, and the Masonic lodge. Besides a widow, he leaves four sons and one daughter. They are Charles G. Linsley of Tucker, Claud E. of Evanston, R. A. of Ogden and Fred A. of Pueblo, Colo., and Mrs. J. Hellenphal of Juneau, Alaska.

SALARIES OF MAIL CLERKS INCREASED

Chief Clerk W. F. Bangasser of the Eighth division of the railway mail service yesterday afternoon received the first detailed announcement of a readjustment of salaries for mail clerks working out of Ogden and Salt Lake. Most of the clerks received an increase in salary of $100 a year and the hours of service have been shortened.
The revision which was made under the 1912 act of congress, is effective in this district, dating October 1, and the increases in salaries will date from that time.
Two million dollars was the amount of the appropriation under the congressional act. The act provides that length of service and meritorious work may be regarded as a basis for increasing salaries $100 per year.

MIGRATORY BIRDS ARE UNDER NEW UNITED STATES STATUTE

Migratory and insectivorous birds in Utah are now under the protection of the federal government. The department of agriculture of the United States has authority to make suitable regulations to give effect to the law. By the approval of President Wilson the law became effective in Utah on October 1.

Through the recent efforts of the biological survey to get protection for migratory and insectivorous birds throughout the United States it became necessary to divide the country into thirteen districts, each in charge of an inspector. Utah, Wyoming and eastern Idaho comprise one of the districts which is known as the mountain states district. D. C. Nowlin has been appointed inspector for this district and his headquarters will be in Salt Lake. He will receive the co-operation of Fred W. Chambers, state fish and game commissioner. J. C. Smith and Byron Hanchett, game wardens of the state, will be deputized and will also assist the federal government in enforcing the laws.

Two Zone Divisions.
The country has been divided into two zones. Zone No. 1 is the breeding zone and comprises states lying north of latitude 40, and includes Wyoming and eastern Idaho. Zone No. 2 is the wintering zone and comprises states lying south of latitude 40, and includes Utah.

The closed season for migratory and insectivorous birds in Utah (Zone No. 2) is as follows: On water fowl, ducks, geese, brant, between January 16 and October 1, beginning in 1914.

On rails, coots and gallinules, between December 1 and September 1, beginning in 1914.

On woodcock, between January 1 and November 1, beginning in 1914.
Snipe Season.
On snipe, between December 16 and October 1, beginning in 1914, and on plover and yellow legs until September 1, 1915.

The open season on migratory and insectivorous birds in Utah is as follows: Ducks, geese and brant, October 1 to January 15.

On rails, coots and gallinules, October 1 to November 30.

On woodcock November 1 to December 31.

On snipe, October 1 to December 15.

There will be no open season on doves in Utah or Wyoming, the season having been closed through the force of the state laws.

THOMAS E. M'KAY IS MADE TRUSTEE BY THE GOVERNOR

Thomas E. McKay was named yesterday by Governor William Spry as a member of the board of trustees of the state school for the deaf and blind, to fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of I. L. Clark.

He returned in 1903 and for two years taught at the Weber academy. In the fall of 1905 he went to the Utah Agricultural college and then became superintendent of the Weber county schools for two years. He was then designated as president of the German and Swiss missions of the Mormon church and returned in 1912, when he was elected as county recorder for Weber, the position he now holds.

A. E. WEATHERBY For Commissioner

I FAVOR THE IMMEDIATE IMPROVEMENT OF THE STREETS, PARTICULARLY THOSE IN THE RESIDENTIAL DISTRICTS.

I FAVOR THE BUILDING OF THE SOUTH FORK DAM AND GUARDING CAREFULLY ALL VESTED RIGHTS NOW OWNED BY OGDEN CITY.

THE IMPORTANCE OF SANITARY CONDITIONS.

Perfect sanitation cannot be overestimated and I therefore favor the immediate extension of sewers, especially in the more thickly populated districts.

MY VIEWS ON THE NINE O'CLOCK CLOSING.

Believing the homes and firesides of our citizens should be protected against every form of vice, I heartily favor the strict enforcement of the ordinances relating to the regulating and closing of saloons at 9 o'clock and the abolition of resorts devoted to gambling and other immoral practices.

I AM IN FAVOR OF PROGRESS.

In common with all good citizens, I am in favor of progress in our municipal activities and a healthy growth in our business and population, and that such a BIGGER Ogden shall be a BETTER Ogden.

IF ELECTED, I PLEDGE MY TIME AND BEST EFFORTS for such an administration of municipal affairs as will increase the welfare of every citizen.

Recently he sent a fake telegram to the family of George Howard Hughson of Berkeley asking for money in the name of the young Hughson. Hughson has been missing for several months and the members of the family believe he has met with foul play.
According to the Salt Lake detectives, the three prisoners confessed that they had planned a number of holdups and robberies in Ogden.

COLLECTION RULES FOR INCOME TAX

Washington, Oct. 29.—There will be two more sets of regulations for the collection of the new income tax, supplemental to those already promulgated, and which related mainly to interest on bonds and other corporation obligations. The next set will relate to the collection of the tax at its source, under which the corporations will deduct the tax due from their individual employees. The second set will contain general instructions for collections not already included in previous regulations.

Corporations already are preparing for deducting under the regulations as to collection at the source. Many interest bearing coupons will be redeemable November 1.

More than three thousand applications have reached the treasury for the three hundred new positions created under the income tax law.

INVESTIGATING IN WEST VIRGINIA

Washington, Oct. 29.—The West Virginia coal strike investigation was reopened today by the senate special committee to examine Charles M. Pratt of New York, about the ownership of the coal lands being worked in the Paint Creek district.
Pratt testified that he and his brothers owned a five-eighths interest in a 21,000-acre tract on Paint Creek and that former Senator Wetmore of Rhode Island owned the remaining three-eighths. He denied that he was a director of the Standard Oil company or that the company had any interest, direct or indirect, in the land.

MAIL SUBPENA PROVES SUCCESS

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 29.—After one month of operation, Municipal Court Bailiff Charles L. Sulzer announced today that his plan of subpoenaing by mail had demonstrated its great superiority over the old method of personal service. Out of a total of 837 summonses in the past month, only fourteen had remained undelivered, while under the old system, he says, at least sixty-eight would have been undelivered because of changes in addresses which are not recorded in the directory.
The postoffice department is more quickly notified of change in addresses, he said, "and hence the percentage of undelivered summonses is much smaller. The total cost to litigation by the mail system has been only $87.50, while under the old system it would have cost $270.12." Bar associations and attorneys al-
